Major Scientific and Artistic Achievements

Mabe Bethônico is an artist researcher. Currently teaching at Head – Genève, she is also a researcher at the École Supérieure d'Art Annecy Alps [ESAAA]. She was associated professor at the Fine Art School of the Federal University of Minas Gerais [UFMG] in Brazil between 2002 and 2020. She holds a Master degree and Doctorate in Visual Arts from the Royal College of Art, London. Initiator of the research lab Memory, Mimesis, Amnesia, she tutored master and doctorate thesis in the Post-graduate Course of the Fine Arts School of UFMG, being active also in the Bachelor's Course. She was member representative for the Arts of the Advisory Research Committee of Social Sciences, Humanities, Letters and Arts of FAPEMIG– the Foundation for supporting scientific research for the State of Minas Gerais [2010-12], during two mandates and member/ president of the Advisory Research Body at UFMG in the field of Letters, Linguistics and Arts [2014-16].

She was member of World of Matter, an international group of artists and theoreticians initiated by Ursula Biemann and Uwe Martin in collaboration with the Institute for Theory [ZHdK], Zurich [see worldofmatter.net]. The project Mineral Invisibility, developed within its frame, was exhibited at CUNY The Graduate Centre in New York, at the HMKV in Dortmund/ Germany, at Leonard and Bina Ellen Gallery of Concordia University in Montreal, Katherine E. Nash Gallery of the University of Minnesota and at Centro Cultural São Paulo.

Between 2013 and 2014 a Post-doctoral project at the Ethnography Museum of Geneva was supported by UFMG and CNPq [the Brazilian National Council for Research]. – The project One traveller after another was winner of the Prize Art and Heritage of IPHAN, the Prize Joaquim Nabuco Foundation/ Banco do Nordeste Brasileiro and the Prize Capacete Procultura, of the Brazilian Culture Ministry.

Since 2013 the development of the Museum of Public Concerns was financed and activated, nominated for the International Prize Visible Award 2013, at the Van AbbeMuseum [Nederland]. One of Bethônico's main research topics is the history of mining in Minas Gerais, having received grants from Fapemig and CNPq. In 2015, outcomes were shown at Nottingham Contemporary [Art and Ecologies in the Americas], and at Kunsthause Aarhus [Dump! Multispecies Making and Unmaking]. Its subsequent part, entitled Extraordinary Mineral Stories [2015 – 2017], was financed by Videobrasil, Sesc São Paulo and Pro Helvetia.

Between 2000 and 2008 she developed the pioneer online project museumuseu - <https://www.ufmg.br/museumuseu/> [currently compromised by the withdraw of Flash Player] and was invited at the 27th e 28th São Paulo Biennials. Some exhibition projects involving extensive research are, between 2009-2010: Archive in Dialogue: Museum of Image and Sound, São Paulo [in collaboration with Joerg Bader]. 2008-2009: Restricted Area, at the Museum of Modern Art in São Paulo. 2008: Ibirapuera Cultural Union, for the 28th São Paulo Biennial. 2007: Caracteres Geológicos Peculiares, for the Encuentro Internacional de Medellín, at the Antioquia Museum, Medellín. In 2006: Wanda Svevo Archive for the 27th São Paulo Biennial. 2003: Telling Histories, at the Kunstverein Muenchen, in collaboration with Liam Gillick, Ana Paula Cohen and Maria Lind. In 2021 she will participate on the 17th Biennale di Venezia [Architettura].

In 2012 she organised the international event Provisões: A Visual Conference bringing together guests from different nationalities for a one-week event with public presentations and in 2010, Strategies of Failure was elaborated as a two-day program with lecture-performances from over 20 participants. Both events happened at the modernist monument Pampulha Art Museum, in Belo Horizonte.

Research Leadership – Selected Financed Projects

1. Memory, Mimesis and Amnesia. Implementation and coordination of Research Lab. Since 2003.

Aims: Dealing with memory, its institutions and mechanisms, the works focus on reading, questioning and deforming museological dynamics, – archives and collections, their administration, organization and display modes. Assuming scientific production in the field of contemporary art as integral to practices of teaching, while establishing ways of dialogue and collaboration with different areas of knowledge, we act for transmission, creating websites and journals, exhibitions, debates and conferences. The projects involved multiple collaborators and students and allowed the construction of a research base with support allowing production.

The initial body of works are organized in the website museumuseu, developed between 2003 and 2009.
<https://www.ufmg.br/museumuseu/>

The lab was regularly supported with funds from research agencies for its various projects and has collaborated with other initiatives led by other labs, such as the project Silence, Shadow and Silicon: Experience in Computational Art in Interactive and Immersive Installations [Financed Project 04/07 process APQ 5894/5.06/07], run between 2009 and 2011.

1. Implementation project: museumuseu [2004 – 2006]

Financed: FAPEMIG [SHA 1104/03].

Scholarships: Bachelors [5]

2. museumuseu Expansion [2006 – 2008]

Financed: FAPEMIG [SHA1143/05].

Scholarships: Bachelors [3]; Masters [1]

3. Institutional Fictions [2009 – 2011]

Financed: FAPEMIG/ Edital Universal [process SHA APQ-0205- 5.06/07] and CNPq [BA scholarships].

Scholarships: Bachelors [4]

4. Institutional Fictions [continuation]/ Mineral Invisibility [2011 – 2013]

Financed FAPEMIG: PROGRAMA PESQUISADOR MINEIRO. Research "Grant" and CNPq [BA scholarships].

Scholarships: Bachelors [4]; Masters [3]

2. Museum of Public Concerns* [Museu dos Assuntos Públicos]. Since 2013.

Aims: Constructing collaboratively a “museum” in form of a number of actions and a platform for alternative memory of Minas Gerais. Project involving critical-theoretical studies and documenting processes. General/ initial presentation:

<https://www.visibleproject.org/blog/project/museum-of-public-concerns/>

1. Implementation project: Museum of Public Concerns: 2015 – 2016.

Financed: FAPEMIG

Scholarships: Bachelors [3]

- 3. World of Matter: Visions of Global Resource Circulation. A Collaborative art, research and exhibition project by international artists and theoreticians. 2009 – 2017.

Aims: World of Matter is an international art and media project investigating primary materials [fossil, mineral, agrarian, maritime] and the complex ecologies of which they are a part. The project responds to the urgent need for new forms of representation that shift resource-related debates from a market driven domain to open platforms for engaged public discourse.

<https://www.worldofmatter.net>

Participants: Mabe Bethônico; Ursula Biemann; Helge Mooshammer; Peter Mörtenböck; Emily E. Scott; Paulo Tavares; Lonnie van Brummelen; Siebren de Haan & guests.

Financed: Institute for Theory [ZHdK], Zurique, Visual Dept. at Goldsmiths College, Londres and others, including UFMG, FAPEMIG and CNPq.

Students involved: Bachelors [3]; Masters [1].
